

Mawsons Robinvale Concrete Agitator Truck Drivers

Mawsons Concrete & Quarries is a family-run business that produces quality construction materials throughout Northern Victoria and Southern N.S.W. We seek two enthusiastic and responsible people to fill two separate truck driving roles at our Robinvale concrete plant. One role is being offered as casual work and the other is a full time position. Both roles involve driving our concrete agitator trucks delivering product to clients in the Robinvale and surrounding region.

Duties include agi truck driving, completing delivery paperwork, general yard duties and occasional basic computer work. A heavy rigid truck licence is essential, as is general truck driving experience. The successful applicants will benefit from thorough on the job training. Excellent customer service and effective team work are key aspects of these roles. Applicants need to be totally committed to safety and quality and display a professional work attitude.
