

Concrete Truck Driver Robinvale

Mawsons is a family-run business that produces quality construction materials throughout Northern Victoria and Southern N.S.W. We seek an experienced truck driver for this full time role at our Robinvale concrete site. Duties include agitator truck driving, front end loader operation, basic computer work and general yard duties. Thorough on the job training will be provided by the friendly, professional Robinvale concrete team.

The successful applicant will need to be totally committed to safety and quality and show a focus on time management and team work. You will need to display excellent customer service skills and have a positive, proactive work attitude. A current HR truck licence essential.
