

Concrete Batcher/Truck Driver Casual Position Fosterville Concrete Plant

Mawsons is a family-run business that produces quality construction materials throughout Northern Victoria and Southern N.S.W.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and conscientious concrete truck driver for casual employment at our concrete operations based out of Fosterville Gold Mine. A front end loader ticket and current heavy rigid truck licence is essential for this role. Working in an underground environment within the Fosterville Gold Mine is a requirement, as is shift work.

Duties include front end loader operation, batching and delivery of concrete product, general yard site duties and basic computer work. The successful applicant will receive thorough on the job training and will benefit from the support of a professional and friendly team. Attention to detail and teamwork are key aspects of this role. You will need to be totally committed to safety and quality and display excellent customer service skills.
